FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COUNTY ATTORNEY BRINGS CITIZEN PROSECUTOR ACADEMY TO WILLIAMS, AZ

February 11, 2013

(Flagstaff, AZ) Coconino County Attorney David Rozema is pleased to announce that his office will conduct a Citizen Prosecutor Academy on Friday, March 1, 2013 from 8:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. in Williams, AZ.

The academy will be taught by various experts from the Coconino County Attorneys Office as well as other professionals from the criminal justice system. Attendees will learn how criminal cases are handled from intake/grand jury through trial to appeal. They can also expect a lecture presented by the Medical Examiner and a presentation about the Department of Public Safety Crime Lab. Participants will gain a behind-the-scenes understanding of real-world prosecution.

"We're excited to continue our academy which brings the community into the office to share information, exchange ideas, and facilitate a better understanding of how the County Attorney's Office serves the public. It's also a lot of fun", said County Attorney Rozema.

Class size is limited, so interested persons are encouraged to apply as soon as possible. There is no cost for the academy. Visit the website at www.coconino.az.gov/CountyAttorney to download an application form. Completed forms can be faxed to (928) 679-8201, or mailed to Coconino County Attorney's Office, 110 E. Cherry Avenue, Flagstaff, AZ 86001. Or, please contact Tami Suchowiejko at (928) 679-8229 or tsuchowiejko@coconino.az.gov.
